

PRESS RELEASE ISSUED BY MEALS ON WHEELS SOUTH AFRICA

13 April 2011

Olorato Crèche Like The Old Woman Who Lived In A Shoe

The Olorato Crèche branch of Meals on Wheels in Taung, North West, looks after 120 children and has only two small rooms from which to operate. Like the nursery rhyme of the Old Woman who lived in a shoe, the crèche has so many children it doesn't know what to do. However, unlike the Old Woman who fed them broth without any bread and whipped them and sent them to bed, the crèche gives each child balanced meals twice a day and tries to make sure they feel loved and valued.

"We need more space," says branch manager Mrs. Goitseone Mogodi. "We simply don't know what to do with all these children. We would also love to have educational toys, mattresses, shelves and a jungle gym." The crèche would like their two other teachers to get paid.

Olorato crèche in Kaelo Street, Mapoteng Village would be delighted to receive any of the above items, as well as a container or Zozo hut.
