Mamelodi West Soup Kitchen Needs A Trailer

Mamelodi West Soup Kitchen branch of Meals on Wheels in Mamelodi West, Pretoria is finding more and more people lining the street each Wednesday when the Nissan bakkie arrives with food.

“We want more sponsorship to expand our service to HIV/AIDS sufferers and TB sufferers,” says branch manager, Ms Evangeline Ranthla. The branch already feeds more than 1500 people a week and more turn up each time.

“We would really love to exchange our bakkie for a bigger one,” says Evangeline. However, a trailer and towbar would also help a lot.
